

Additional Vocabulary Support

Reflections

Use the chart below to review vocabulary. These vocabulary words will help you complete this page.

Related Words	Explanations	Examples
Orient AWR ee ent	To place or direct in a position, with reference to a certain point	Orient the box so that the top faces up.
Orientation awr ee en TAY shun	The way an object is positioned	The orientation of the window is facing east.
Visual VIZH oo ul	A picture or display used to show something	A road map is a visual that can be used to figure out how to get to different places.
Vision VIZH un	Seeing with the eyes, sight	His vision is so good he can read the street sign from 60 feet away.
Visualize VIZH oo uh lyz	To form a picture of something in your mind	An artist tries to visualize a finished painting before starting to paint.
Reflect rih FLEKT	To show an image of something	The mirror reflects light onto the wall.
Reflection rih FLEK shun	A mirror image of an object	The artist can see a reflection of the sky on the pond.

Circle the correct word to complete the sentence.

- The [orient/orientation] of the solar panel is toward the sun.
- The water [reflects/reflection] the clouds and trees around the lake.
- The editor can read small print. He has good [visual/vision].

Use the vocabulary above to fill in the blanks.

- He learns a lot from pictures. He is a _____ learner.
- She looks at her _____ in the mirror as she combs her hair.
- Before she plays in the game, the soccer player will _____ herself scoring a goal.